

Art Happenings with Kailua Village Artists

A Local Gallery Co-op since 1987

KAILUA VILLAGE ARTISTS FEATURED ARTIST IN MARCH IS KATHLEEN JAEGER

Kathleen Jaeger will be introducing pen and ink drawings and an expanded offering of hand-painted glassware, in addition to showing new acrylic and mosaic work during her month as the Featured Artist at the Kailua Village Artists Gallery in March.

Her work with pen and ink on paper has evolved into detailed images of local themes from our Island found on land, sea and air. She uses either a pointillism or a cross-hatch method to create the shadings in these drawings. She frequently starts the piece by drawing a grid behind which she places her image.

Kathleen uses glassware as the canvas upon which to paint her unique designs. The slick curved surface gives this medium its own unique challenges. Kathleen uses paints specifically formulated for work on glass and then sets it with heat, resulting in a permanent bond.

When working in mosaic, Kathleen uses primarily stained glass as her tesserae as she creates both wall pieces and three-dimensional work. This past year Kathleen's mosaic work has evolved to include larger scale pieces. She will be showcasing one of these, a Honu Triptych.

Painting with acrylics gives her the opportunity to work in a more spontaneous way than is possible with her other mediums, resulting in vibrant colors and playful images. It has been said of her work that "They make me happy!" Kathleen also enjoys the challenge of working on unusual supports for her work, using discards from friends and family and finding ways to bring beauty and sometimes even a new function into their existence. Except for a few note cards, no reproductions of Kathleen's work are made; when a theme is being re-visited, each piece is a unique original with its own personality.

Kathleen holds a BFA from Phillips University and a MsEd in Special Education for Emotionally Disturbed Children and Youth from the University of Kansas (Go Jayhawks!). She is a registered Art Therapist with the American Art Therapy Association. With this foundation, she spent her mainland career working within the public schools teaching art and as art therapist in alternative settings for special needs students, specifically behaviorally disordered/ emotionally disturbed populations. Upon her retirement she and her husband, Bill, moved to the Big Island.

To meet the artist, Kathleen Jaeger and learn more about her work, she will be working at the gallery on Mondays, March 5 and 19, and Tuesday, March 13, 2018.

New Acrylic Artist Joins Kailua Village Artists

Robert S. Williams, known to friends as Bob Williams, joined Kailua Village Artists in February. Bob has been making art for 45 years. Kailua Village Artists Gallery is, at present, the only gallery where you can find his art.

Bob says, "My current works are acrylic paintings on paper and canvas and are of places that I feel attachments to. They are areas I tend to spend time in and not just go to paint in. I hope I infuse my feelings for the places I paint and make my unique process of painting part of the work. I also paint more personal images that deal with my day to day life. I've included Giclee prints of my original paintings, so they can be taken home in people's luggage and are more affordable."
