

Art Happenings with Kailua Village Artists

A Local Gallery Co-op since 1987

KAILUA VILLAGE ARTISTS IS FEATURING SEVEN GUEST ARTISTS IN SEPTEMBER

Frank Andrews creates welded copper petroglyph images inspired from petroglyphs found on locations around the Hawaiian Islands.

Rachel Baker works with fused glass shaping it into plates, coasters, jewelry, wine stoppers and accessory pieces. She uses bright colors, featuring marine life, flowers and other subjects.

Brad Lewis is an internationally published and recognized photographer with an impressive portfolio of volcano photography taken over the last 30 years. The gallery features his lava photographs from 1983 to the present.

Parker and Debbie Nicholson collaborate in their wood turning of native wood found on the island. The gallery features a variety of their refillable Koa pens.

Scott Pincus is a silversmith. He creates jewelry that incorporates native shells and sea life designs into his work.

Bill Twibell, known as the "Fish Print Guy," specializes in the ancient art of Gyotaku. He paints various caught fish of all sizes, then presses rice paper onto the fish for one-of-a-kind originals. Reproductions are also available.
